

I urge you not to take away what the people of Indiana have worked hard to achieve. We have taken back our homes and privacy with the do not call list. We do not want to have this time with our families taken away from us by your actions. The companies that are complaining have other forms of communication to get thier word and product out to the public with out placing a burden on our homes. Thank you for your time, Christopher A. Beck